Summary

With a bachelor's degree in Engineering and 1.6 years of hands-on experience as a Software Engineer, I have built a strong foundation in development and big data. This has led me to pursue a postgraduate diploma in Big Data as I am passionate about this field.
My expertise includes working with SQL Server, MongoDB, Power BI, and Hadoop, Hive, and I am constantly seeking to expand my knowledge and skills. Additionally, I have worked on several projects and achieved various certifications. I am particularly interested in Big Data and AWS and am eager to connect with professionals to explore new growth and contribution opportunities.
